CN 32nd Boys and Girls Week Celebration

The 32nd Girls and Boys Week (BGW) Celebration originally slated on Dec. 6-12, 2014 is now being held from January 24-30 2015 focusing on the theme, "Bata, Kasama Ka, Ikaw Ay Mahalaga" due to typhoon threats in December last year. This annual event was spearheaded by the Kiwanis Club of Daet in cooperation with the Provincial Government of Camarines

Norte, Municipality of Daet and the Department of Education.

Partakers for this year's BGW are 96 senior high school students from both public and private schools in the province who either belong to the top five of their class or a leader of a school organization/s duly acknowledged by their schools. Secondary schools are allowed to send two (2) student representatives only while Daet-based high schools are permitted to send additional four (4) senior students as participants.

Said weeklong activity formally started with the Opening Program and Orientation conducted by concerned Kiwanis Club Officials last January 24 at the Little Theater, CN Agro-Sports Center, Provincial Capitol, Daet. This was

Romana of VPHS triumphs as Boy Governor

Exequiel Romana of Vinzons Pilot High School (VPHS) won the gubernatorial post during the election of boy and girl officials held last January 26, 2015 at the Little Theater, Provincial Capitol, Daet, Camarines Norte. He won against James Dave Chua of WENG-WENG Party & Berthold Jules de Leon of the YOUNG Party.

Romana shared victory with Sheena

Mae Lopez of Basud National High School (BNHS) who was elected as Girl Vice Governor. They will act as Boy Governor and Girl Vice Governor from Jan. 26-30, 2015 under the guidance and supervision of their respective counterpart local government officials.

The said election was done through secret balloting where concerned Kiwanians acted as election officers and 6 youth officials as COMELEC officials.

Likewise, Freddie Guadalupe of Delia Diezmo National High School (DDNHS) got the congressional seat for the 1st District of Camarines Norte, and Darrel Borja of Alawihao National High School (ANHS) won as congressman for the 2nd District.

Meanwhile, the following were the elected Boy and Girl Board Members: 1st District - Wilbert Alaurin and Gillian

For every dot a stroke comes out; every stroke forms a figure; every figure generates an image; and every image creates a masterpiece. And so, we, the youth, like those dots are precious and have a purpose in every aspect of human life.

This was further emphasized by the theme, “Bata, Kasama Ka, Ikaw ay Mahalaga” of the 32nd Boys and Girls Week celebration from January 24- 30, 2015. The weeklong event itself reflects the government and the private sectors’ acknowledgment of the youth sector’s importance in society, aside from countless multi-sectoral programs and projects that promotes our rights and privileges.

Similarly, we need to prove that their investment in us – money, time, effort – is not wasted. Hence, we should at first discover our roles in nation building as future leaders who are ‘the hope’ of the fatherland as once labeled by Dr. Jose P. Rizal, our national hero.

We may be like young birds that couldn’t fly high and go wherever we want to; but, definitely, each one of us has a role and very purpose in reshaping the future of our country. But sad to note, as the world evolves a thousand times, a million times - our beings as significant dots are being questioned.

Instead of us saving the day, we are the ones who need to be rescued. We could be the next world leaders, but we could also be the next world’s most wanted criminals. These are the challenges we need to face and the struggle we should bravely wrestle. If we really want to be recognized as among the ‘best’ and ‘significant’ dots – we need to make a difference.

Each time we fall, we should stand at once. For every setback, we should move forward twice, thrice or more. We should take every failure in our lives as a challenge and a chance to improve ourselves.

Let us use the afore-cited weeklong celebration as an opportunity to prepare ourselves of becoming our country’s future leaders. To start with, we need a tablespoonful of discipline, a cupful of sense of responsibility and a handful of ready service to our countrymen as best ingredients in molding ourselves, the youth, as the hope of our fatherland as once said by Gat Rizal.

Each one of us is a semblance of a ‘dot’ – unnoticed; often ignored, insignificant. But when scores of ‘dots’ converge as one, they can form a great image. Like ‘dots’, we too, can make a difference if we start to believe that ‘a single dot’ is within us - a ‘dot’ we will multiply within and among us as respectful children; responsible students; responsive neighbors, productive citizens.

Yes, we, the youth, can be the hope of our fatherland. And all we need to do is to prove that we are worthy of Gat Rizal’s trust and belief in us.

YES, WE CAN. And the time to prove that we are ‘dots’ that matter is NOW!

"Mercy and Compassion"

This is the key message of Pope Francis when he visited our country Philippines for 4-days from Jan. 16-19.

The main reason of Pope Francis for visiting our country is to be with the victims of typhoon Yolanda in Leyte and Samar who were greatly devastated in the so-called super typhoon that cost thousand of lives of our 'kababayans'. He was deeply saddened by said catastrophe that he wanted to be in Tacloban as early as he can. But his hectic schedules hinders him to do so.

Another reason for his visit here is the fact that, the Philippines is the foremost Catholic country in Asia, which in itself is a special gift of God, a special blessing. But this is also a vocation for us Filipinos who are called to be outstanding missionaries of Catholic faith in Asia.

Amidst his tight schedules, Pope Francis prioritized his visit in extremely typhoon-hit areas of Leyte and Samar here in the Philippines. Pope Francis repeatedly said that he needs to be here in our country to personally express his sympathy to our kababayans. And so he did!

Despite the imminent danger of typhoon 'Amang', he went to Tacloban and hugged and comforted Yolanda victims whose faith was not moved by the unimaginable ordeals they went through during and after the wrath of Yolanda.

Jorge Mario Bergoglio is the very well-known Pope Francis who hails from Argentina. He is very much adored by all Christians and non-Christians all over the world. He has a ready smile and hand waive for everyone - people from all walks of life - who said that they feel extreme happiness and feel the presence of JESUS CHRIST in the persona of Pope Francis.

He came from the poor country of Argentina where he experienced a lot of difficulties in life. The reason why he deeply relates with the people in need. "My people are poor and I am one of them". He said this more than once.

Now that he's a Pope, his dedication to help the poor remains pure and firm. He lends his hands to the vulnerable and deep concern for the youth especially the sick and the disabled.

During his 4-day visit here in the Philippines, he showed genuine love to the children he had personal encounter with. The two orphan kids who welcomed him in the airport; the kid-survivors of 'Yolanda' who gave testimonies in his holy mass in Leyte - experienced the utmost mercy and compassion of Pope Francis - the People's Pope.

Surprisingly, too, he visited the young orphans in Tulay ng Kabataan Foundation in Intramuros away from the limelight. The kids lined up

TUNAY NA LIDER

"Being a leader is not always being on top."

Ito ang linyang dapat magmulat sa ating mga kabataan kung ano ang totoong kahulugan ng pagiging isang lider o pinuno. Marahil ay iniisip ng karamihan, lalung-lalo na ang mga nagmula sa mga malalayong paaralan na ordinaryong estudyante lamang sila. Oo nga't nakikilahok sila sa 32nd Boys and Girls Week Celebration ngayong taon ngunit hindi nila iniisip ang manguna o mamuno.

Nang marinig ko ang sinabi ng isang estudyante na, "Being Leader is not always being on top", nagbago ang pakahulugan ko sa pagiging pinuno. Ang pagiging pinuno ay hindi nangangahulugang ikaw ay dapat na maging pinakamatalino, pinakamayaman, o pinakasi-kat. Ang pagiging lider ay nagmumula sa pagkakaroon ng disiplina sa sarili at kakayahan na maimpluwensyahan ang lahat na maging mabuting tao at paunlarin ang sarili para sa kapakanan ng nakararami.

Ngunit paano nga ba maging isang lider? Kung may disiplina ka na sa sarili mo, paano mo maipapakita na isa kang lider? Kapag nakatulong ka sa kapwa mo, masasabi kong isa ka ng lider. Kapag nakapagbahagi ka ng kaalaman sa ibang tao, isa ka ng lider. At kapag nakagawa ka ng isang bagay na makabubuti sa iyo at sa iyong kapwa, isa ka ng lider. Hindi kinakailangang gawin mong posible ang mga bagay na imposible sapagkat ang isang lider ay hindi isang Super Hero kundi isang pangkaraniwang tao na hindi pangkaraniwan ang husay sa pakikitungo sa kapwa.

Lahat tayo ay pwedeng maging isang lider o pinuno sa sarili nating mga pamamaraan. Sabi nga ng isang estudyante, "One thing is common in this world, that is our uniqueness". May kani-kanya tayong katangi-tanging karakter at abilidad na kailangan lamang nating diskubrehin at paunlarin para magsilbing huwarang indibidwal at lider. Maging lider ka hindi lamang sa linggong ito, kung hindi habang may kakayahan kang maging isang pinuno.

underlined by various lectures about Leadership, Parliamentary Procedures, Youth Empowerment under the Local Government Code, Parliamentary Procedures, and Public Speaking.

The election of Boys and Girls officials, the highlight of the yearly event, scheduled on the same day was instead moved to January 26, 2015 after their attendance in the flag raising ceremony at Provincial Capitol.

The boy and girl officials who will not be elected to provincial or local positions will be appointed as department heads or division chiefs, either in the provincial government or municipal government of Daet.

It is expected that elected or appointed youth officials will be able to discover and experience the duties and roles of their counterpart officials from January 26-30 2015. Hence, counterpart officials are requested to assist, give first-hand information and orient youth officials of their mandated tasks and responsibilities.

Boy & Girl officials visit CNPJ Borders François Aime ...

The boy and youth officials in the 32nd Boys & Girls Week Celebration during their visit to inmates in Camarines Norte Provincial Jail.

To let the boy and girl officials personally discover the life of people behind bars, a visitation at the Camarines Norte Provincial Jail (CNPJ) was conducted last January 29, 2015 as organized by Boy Provincial Warden Michael Vincent M. Salazar (BNHS) together with Boy Asst. Provincial Warden Carl Josef Bernaldez (SFPS) and girl provincial warden staff, Diana Rose S. Bacurin (SFNHS) and Aira Joy R. Palma (GAHS).

CNPJ youth officials led the boy and girl officials in visiting the different detention cells.

Similarly, a short program was held that started with a Doxology given by CNPJ boarders. This was followed by the singing of the Philippine National Anthem led by Ms. Ma. Teresa Zabala; inspirational messages from Boy Governor Exequiel Romana and Congressman (2nd District) Darrel Borja, and an Opening Remarks given by Boy Provincial Warden Michael Vincent Salazar. Selected inmates presented a Folk Dance number while others gave a song number.

During their visit, youth officials bought handicrafts made by CNPJ boarders.

Boy Provincial Warden Salazar and girl CNPJ staff Palma prepared games like Bagito, The Boat is Sinking, and Agta Henyo for the inmates. After the games, the inmates together with youth officials watched a video presentation.

Inmates were further requested to share their experiences inside the jail. One of the inmates shared his tale of life story which made the young officials realize the daily ordeals of jail boarders.

The said activities in CNPJ ended at about 11:30 O'clock in the morning.

along the road he passed through, felt the warmth of his embrace and love whom children and their families will forever cherish.

How Pope Francis spent his days here in the Philippines will forever stay in the hearts and minds of Filipinos, especially, us, the youth whom the Pope dearly loved. His ever humble ways, compassionate behaviour, the wisdom he shared are not just memories we should treasure but rather use as catalyst to show Mercy and Compassion to the less fortunate.

Pope Francis is the true epitome of Mercy and Compassion.

He said, "Let us learn how to weep as she (Virgin Mary) has shown us today and let us not forget this lesson. The great question of why so many children suffer, she did this in tears. The response that we can make today is: Let us really learn how to weep".

This message of Pope Francis is a challenge to us, youth, to learn to weep in sympathy for those in difficult situations as well as to respond to their call for help.

As true Catholics, let us show Mercy and Compassion to our brethren just as Pope Francis did. Let us be inspired that, 'FRANCOIS AIME JEUNES' (French) PAPA FRANCISCO LOVES THE YOUTH, Papa Francisco loves us!

Kiwanis leads BGW again

The Kiwanis Club of Daet in partnership with the Provincial Government of Camarines Norte, Municipal Government of Daet and the Department of Education (DepEd) once again spearheaded the Boys and Girls Week Celebration. This is in adherence with Presidential Proclamation No. 99 declaring the second week of December as "Linggo ng Kabataan".

But due to typhoon threats in December last year, the celebration was moved to January 24-30, 2015. It may be noted that long before the birth of the Local Government Code of 1991 that mandated the annual observance of "Linggo ng Kabataan", the Kiwanis Club of Daet had started this activity way back in 1982. The municipal government of Daet joined the week-long activity only in 1995.

The annual Boys and Girls Week that has been going on for 32 years still gets strong support of the Provincial Government of Camarines Norte, LGU Daet, DepEd and the Sangguniang Kabataan. Activities for the weeklong event are focused to imbibe in the youth participants the working knowledge how

The Guiding Light

By: Ara Denise A. Negado

I watch you as you sleep
I can see that you are dreaming
As your slumber is too deep
And your lips smiling

Suddenly, the alarm starts ringing
Out of shock, you fell out of bed
In a few seconds I saw you standing
Ready for the day ahead

As you always did in mornings
You started making your bed
And the sound of the bird's chirping
Brings peace into your head

You stepped out of your bedroom
You were welcomed by the morning haze
Ready in your school uniform
And a little smile on your face

You sat on the dining chair
Clasp your hand and shut your eyes
You talked to me, I am aware
And in my heart, there it lies

Lord, for all the blessing you gave to me
I thank you with all my might
And whatever troubles may be
I know that you're my guiding light

(Youth Only Live Once)

By: Lalaine Macale

Since then, or right from the start
In our society, youth became its part
In some activities they hold
We are there, whom they mould

Letting us know that we all belong
Will make us on top and live strong
Joining hands like sticks bundled together
Youth are important and significant forever

In return, let us use our powers
To help and influence the lives of others
So drop any fear and take any chance
For we, the youth, only live once

MIA

By: Alyzza Talan

God gave us boon
The sun, the stars, the moon
All the wonders of nature you see
And all the animals living free.

But now, stop, look and listen
Observe that all these start to lessen
People keep on wasting marvels of earth
Until such time these will end to dearth.

"Kindness is inbred to human being"
A great philosopher's saying
We are born to be assiduous and good
Tender love and care will make a better mood.

Nowadays, people are haughty
Exhibiting not a good quality
They yearn for indulgence and luxury
And do whatever it takes for money.

Humans: felons and fugitives of verity
And prisoners of falsity
As pathetic as a slave
Because they didn't know how to behave

It is indeed a ghastly situation
Is the augury of seers will be in motion?
Where are you in times of these commotions?
Pretending blind? Missing in action?

The Unpredictable World

By: Patricia Angela Echano

A place in the society we try to fit in Racial prejudice and injustice is seen within
Though we move forward and give them smiles
Only grief and sorrow behind lies

As we try our best to break free from this
The chains of judgments holds as close and less
Simple thoughts of minds trickling us slowly
Often misunderstood by people, bring melancholy

It is so easy for others to give opinions
Never realizing they should never judge
Who are they to opine and begrudge
Of them as wrong, wanting dominions

My heart ached, my mind bruised
Enduring paining emotions, mentally abused
Prejudice, I have seen and experienced it
Read about it, accept it, but still live with it

Lugar ng mga Naudlot na Pangarap

Lugar para sa masasamang tao, lugar na walang katahimikan, at lugar kung saan walang gustong pumunta. Iyan ang karaniwang pananaw at konsepto ng karamihang tao ukol sa kulungan.

Ngunit ang mga pakahulugang ito ay mali. Ang kulungan ay hindi lugar para sa mga walang silbing tao bagkus ito ay lugar para sa pagkatuto at pagbabago. Marahil, totoo na ang mga nakapiit dito ay mga taong nagkasala sa batas ngunit hindi tama kung iisipin ng mga taong malaya na hindi na sila pwedeng magbago at habambuhay nang magiging masama. Hindi rin tamang katakutan sila sapagkat pagmamahal at pang-unawa ang kailangan nila katulad ng itinuro sa atin ng Panginoon.

Nakalulungkot isipin na ito rin ay isang lugar ng mga naudlot na pangarap. Ngunit sa kabila ng mga nagawa nilang pagkakamali, may mga pangarap din sila. Pangarap na nakulong sa pagitan ng mga rehas at nananatili na lang sa kanilang isipan. Pangarap na naudlot dahil sa kasalanan at tanging pagsisisi na lang ang pweding gawin.

Ito ang dapat magmulat sa mga kabataan kung gaano sila kapalad sapagkat nasa kanila ang pagkakataon para matupad ang kanilang mga pangarap. Dapat matatak sa kanilang isipan na ang paggawa ng maling bagay ay may karampatang parusa na sa dakong huli ay pagsisisihan.

Ngunit ang bilanguan ay isang lugar din para sa pagkatuto. Hindi sa mga akademika kundi sa mga tunay na aral ng buhay. Ang mga nakapiit sa Cam. Norte Provincial Jail ay naging instrumento sana para sa mga kabataan na magsikap para makamit ang kanilang pangarap at maging mabuting mamamayan ng susunod na henerasyon.
